THE VALUE AND USE OF MAN.

Man, like everything else, is useful in his place, or useless out of it. It is scarcely less an evil for a country to have too many men than too few. The absence of a proper distribution of humanity the world over is a great evil. In some parts they are huddled together like young caterpillars on a branch; in others they are like angels' visits, few and far between. Take, for example, England and British Columbia as representing the two extremes. In England population has attained a great density in some places. The surplus or pauper population is counted by millions, and nearly fifteen millions sterling is annually employed in a very unsuccessful attempt to sustain that worse than useless element. We would not like to say how much it costs the nation to restrain and punish crime clearly traceable to this condition, or how much, in money and in life, is annually expended in combatting disease springing therefrom. One of the most healthy and encouraging signs of the times is the growing disposition observable in England to inaugurate a systematic process of transplanting the redundant population of England into the new soil of the Colonies. People at home are at last opening their eyes to the obvious fact that it will be less expensive to get rid of the redundant population in this way than to maintain that element in a condition of wretchedness and idleness at home. Some persons, let us hope, add to this consideration the higher view, and see the enormous advantages to the immediate subject of it, colonization would possess over that of nursed pauperism. In British Columbia there is room for more than England has to spare. It has been estimated that what is spent per head in mitigating the miseries of pauperism in England for two years would suffice to transplant into the colonies and maintain for the same period of time. But suppose four years were substituted for two in this estimate, how enormously would England gain, and how would the colonies gain too. Looking at the world as it stands, "There must be something wrong," as the author of "Sartor Resartus" remarked many years ago. "A full-formed horse will, in any market, bring from twenty to as high as two hundred Eriedrichs d'or; such is his worth to the world. A full-formed man is not only worth nothing to the world but the world could afford him a round sum would he simply engage to go and hang himself. Nevertheless, which of the two was the more cunningly-devised article, even as an engine? Good heavens! A white European man, standing on his two legs, with two five-fingered hands at his shackle bones, and miraculous head on his shoulders, is worth I should say from fifty to a hundred horses." But, to be practical, the white European man must have a field for the exercise and employment of his "miraculous head" and "five-fingered hands." Such a field is afforded in British America. British Columbia presents, perhaps, more varied attractions than are to be found anywhere else; and it affords greater facilities than almost any other country for the poor to place themselves in positions of comfort and independence. The value of each European immigrant to the United States has been estimated at £100 sterling a year. Would the rate fall lower here? Looking at this subject with a strictly commercial eye, one feels at a loss to comprehend how it is that some practical understanding has not been long since arrived at between Great Britain and the Colonists for the systematic utilization of so valuable a commodity. Taking English pauperism at its minimum, two millions, the enormous burden of about £15,000,000 sterling, or nearly $40 a head to each pauper, is cast upon the taxpayer.

And for what? Not to save the pauper from poverty and misery; for he is scarcely raised above that. Not to save him from crime and its fearful consequences; for he is, as a rule, steeped to the lips in both! What downright madness to continue nursing at home a plague-spot, a festering sore, which might, for less money, and with far less trouble, be metamorphosed into a blessing abroad—a double blessing, blessing him that gives and him that takes. It is, as we have said, gratifying to observe the attention this subject is now attracting at home. The small beginnings are even now observable; but, in order to take its true position and assume fitting dimensions, the movement must become a national one, conducted conjointly by the Imperial and Colonial Governments, and placed upon a broader and firmer basis than is to be found in the meagre and uncertain dote of private charity. It appears to us that it is the duty of every Colonial Governor, and especially of our own, to urge upon the Imperial authorities the great duty of the nation in respect to its surplus population and its Colonies.

COUNTY COURT.

(Before Mr. Justice Pemberton.)

Angels vs. Tolson.—This was an action to recover $13, claimed for services as a compositor. The Plaintiff, in evidence, stated that he was on piece work, and that no notice to leave was required. He called several witnesses to testify to the point, whose evidence went to show that such was the practice here. The defence was, that plaintiff, being employed by the week, although paid by the piece, was bound to give reasonable notice; but instead of doing so, he had left in the middle of a day's work, without any cause or any intimation. Witnesses were called as to the manner in which plaintiff had left, and as to the practice of the trade.

The Judge advised upon the improper way in which the plaintiff had left, and said, his present feeling was to dismiss the case; but, as a very important principle was involved, he would reserve his decision.

Woods vs. Shultz.—An action to recover $117, an amount paid for taxes, on a lot of land which defendant sold to plaintiff. Judgment was deferred one week.

The Court adjourned till Tuesday, the 11th instant.

THE NORTH-WEST TERRITORY.—There would appear to be no doubt about the Hudson Bay Company having decided to accept the terms proposed by Lord Granville; but there is considerable doubt as to the acquisition of Canada. The terms—£300,000, sterling, with 50,000 acres, comprising the tit-bits of the whole territory, and one-twentieth of all the rest or the land—are so much less favourable to the Dominion than the Canadians were in the habit of expecting, that it is not improbable the Dominion Parliament may reject the offer. Should this course be adopted, we presume the question of the claims of the Company will be referred to the Imperial Privy Council. It is difficult to say what turn the matter may take, and suspense is all the more painful out here from the obvious fact that the question of Confederation may be considered as hanging upon the transfer to the Dominion, of the great territory in question.

TO BE LEVELLED UP.—It was currently rumoured in England when the mail left that at the close of the present Session Mr. Disraeli will be raised to the peerage, Mr. Hardy taking his place as leader of the Conservative party in the House of Commons.

STAKES UP.—On Saturday evening last the remaining £250, the balance of the stakes between "Lucy" and "Greyhound", was put up; the stakes are $1000, $500 a side. The race will come off on the 12th at Beacon Hill. Mile heats, the best in three.

SUPREME COURT.—A Court will be held to-morrow, at the Court House, James Bay, to try the case Dickson Campbell & Co. vs. the Official Assignee. Chief Justice Begbie will preside.

REMANDED AGAIN.—Tom Shakspeare was called up yesterday from remand, on a charge of aiding and abetting sailors to desert from H.M. Navy, and was further remanded until to-morrow.

FOR PORTLAND.—The Gussie Telfair, Capt. Dall, sailed for Portland yesterday morning, at 8 o'clock. She took a Mail and Express, and a small number of passengers. She will connect with the Ori flame at Astoria.

FOR NEW WESTMINSTER.—The Enterprise sailed for New Westminster yesterday morning, at 9 o'clock. She took a large freight, and a number of passengers.

FOR OLYMPIA.—The steamers W. G. Hunt, and Eliza Anderson will sail for Olympia and ports on the Sound to-day, at 12 o'clock noon.

STREETS.—George Steffy commenced to grade Douglas Street yesterday, under his contract with the City Council.

CRICKET.—The match between the indignation Eleven and the International Eleven will come off to-day at Beacon Hill, at 11 o'clock.

AUCTION SALE.—J. P. Davis & Co.'s extensive Credit Sale will come off today at their salesroom, at 11 o'clock a.m. A straight invoice of English and American Boots and Shoes, of every style and of first quality will be sold on a liberal credit.

A NOVEL VESSEL.—A four-masted barque arrived at Portland, Oregon, last week, being not only the strangest, but the largest vessel, that has ever visited that city.

FOR NANAIMO.—The Douglas will leave for Nanaimo this morning at 7 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 5, 1869.

ENGLISH MAIL SUMMARY.

Our English files are to the 3rd ult. The Queen, with the junior members of the Royal family, continued at Windsor Castle, and was in good health. The Prince and Princess of Wales had visited Suez, and inspected that wonderful enterprise, the Suez Canal. Their arrival at Dardanelles was announced, where they were the subjects of a very enthusiastic demonstration. A grand ball was to be given in their honor, at the British Embassy, at Constantinople, at which the Sultan would be present. It was thought their Royal Highnesses would extend their tour to Odessa and the Crimea. The arrival of the Duke of Edinburgh at Adelaide, Melbourne and Sydney was announced. The reception given to his Royal Highness even exceeded in grandeur and enthusiasm that which distinguished his late unhappy visit. The Courts were exercising their new functions in the most business-like way. Five seats declared vacant were filled on the 30th March, and the result was a gain of one to the Conservative party. The Marquis of Bute was, on the 11th March, invested, at Jerusalem, with the spurs and sword of the celebrated Godfrey de Bouillon, making him a Knight of the Holy Sepulchre. The ceremony was performed in the Latin Chapel of the Holy Sepulchre, called the Chapel of the Apparition, as it was there our Saviour appeared to Mary Magdalene. There was mass in the morning, at which the Marquis attended; and afterwards the Latin Patriarch, or Superior performed the ceremonies of investiture. The sword and spurs of the great Crusader are highly-valued relics, used only in the investiture of knights—an honor limited to men of noble birth and of the Catholic faith. The indefatigable Miss Rye has undertaken a new object, and proposes to raise a fund for the purpose of conveying what are termed "the gutter children" of England to Canada and the Western States of America. She would take only female children, who must be orphans, or foundlings, or children who have been deserted five years; all to be of the age of from five to ten years. The English press was almost unanimous in recommending the Hudson Bay Company to accept the offer made to them by Lord Granville. The Reverend Johnson of Northumberland, where he received various addresses from Chambers of Commerce and Corporations, in a speech at Newcastle he reiterated his confidence in the continuance of peace between Great Britain and America, declared that "a more idle fancy never entered the brain of a man than that of a war between England and America." The English press immediately, with some severity upon the reputation recently earned in Canada by the officers of the 53rd regiment, and approves of the decision to send that regiment to Barbadoes. Alluding to the proposed reduction of the imperial forces in Canada the London Telegraph says: "It has been decided to reduce the strength of the British forces in Canada by 5,000 men, and remarks that there is no reason why the step should be unsatisfactory either to the tax-paying public at home or to the people of the Dominion. So long as peace lasts, there is no ground for maintaining a large body of men in the Colonies; and if war should unhappily break out, we shall have plenty of time to send the necessary assistance. Happily, Canada is learning the duty of self-reliance. She is beginning to see in the days of trouble she must trust to herself quite as much as the mother country. To England the withdrawal of the troops will be a considerable relief, since the regiment will be of use elsewhere, and will assist the Government in carrying out those measures of reduction and economy which are imperatively demanded by the nation. Nor, as we have already said, is there the slightest reason to fear that Canada will not be true to herself in case of need. Whenever a real danger has threatened the Colony in recent years, the population has shown a spirit which sufficed to keep assailants at a respectful distance. Military men acknowledge that a finer force of Volunteers was never turned out than that which prepared to deal with the threatened invasion of Fenians in 1866, and again last year. The presence of a few English troops in the Dominion may serve a good purpose, and no one advocates their total recall but even after 5,000 men are withdrawn there will remain about 7,000. Judging from some recent scandals, the troops are not spending their time to much public advantage in Canada, and it might have done the 53rd no harm to have had a long turn of duty in the Mauritius. The Canadians themselves will probably be glad to dispense with certain of their gallant defenders."

From San Juan.—The Emily Harris returned from San Juan last evening at half past 7 o'clock.

TELEGRAPHIC.

SPECIAL TO THE BRITISH COLUMBIAN.

EASTERN STATES.

Boston, May 3.—James Hannwell, a leading merchant of this city identified with the San-wich Island and California trade for over half a century, died yesterday, aged 70.

Richmond, May 3.—Chief Justice Chase opened the U. S. Court this afternoon. The grand jury were all whites. The "Ironclad oath" being dispensed with many old citizens appeared in the jury box.

Washington, May 3.—Dispatches are received from Admiral Craven, at Mare Island, March 31, giving an account of the operations in Alaska, and the destruction of Indian villages.

Commodore Meade considers Security Bay the best rendezvous possible for the whaling fleet, superior to Sitka and a better site for a military post than Kotzebue.

Baron Gerolt, being about to return to Prussia, took informal leave of the Secretary of State to-day. He has continuously represented Prussia here for twenty-two years. General Banks reiterates his denial of the statement that the committee on foreign relations intend to visit Sandomiroff officially. He says no authority has ever been granted, consequently no money can be drawn from the contingent fund.

New York, May 3.—A New York Herald's cable special says the revolutionists held a congress, April 13, at Siberon. Over thirty representatives were present from all parts of the island. Cespedes was present. The resolutions declare that the revolutionary party are fighting for independence from Spain, and annexation to the United States.

Washington, May 3.—The President, yesterday, ordered the appointment of Blom, of Missouri, Minister to Brazil, to be issued. There is official warrent for saying that negotiations on the Alabama question will not be opened at our instance, though we hold ourselves in readiness to meet any advance on the part of England.

New York, May 3.—Private letters from Paris say the French Atlantic cable will be finished and on shipboard by the middle of the present month. It is regarded by persons, competent to form a judgment, as superior in many respects to the present cable between England and the United States. It is intended to have the cable in working order by the fourth July, if success attends the laying of it.

EUROPE.

St. Petersburg, May 3.—The recall of Baron Stoeckel, the Russian Minister at Washington, is officially announced.

Conx, May 3.—The mass meeting on Saturday warmly endorsed the recent speech of the Mayor. Resolutions were adopted expressing sympathy with and confidence in that functionary.

London, May 3.—A public meeting at St. James' Hall to-night, protested against the disestablishment bill. The resolution strongly condemns Gladstone's bill, and ask the House of Lords to reject or materially alter it.

SECOND DESPATCH.

EASTERN STATES.

New York May 3.—The Times' special says Sec. Boutwell is about to inaugurate a sinking fund to pay public debt under law of 1862, which has never been enforced. Commissioner Deland has been formally notified, that an appeal will be taken from his decision of the law of tax on bankers and brokers.

The public debt has been reduced at rate of nearly eighty millions yearly. The case of Lafayette C. Baker, re City of Washington, for a reward of $20,000 offered for the arrest of Booth, was decided against Baker on ground that being an officer of the Government he could not share in the reward—the case has been appealed to the Court in Banc.

New York, May 4.—Genhce, at the interview with President Grant thought the people would prefer separate votes on the disfranchising clause, also on the clauses affecting internal improvements. He favors the 15th amendment. He approves the recent Conservative movement in Richmond, and does not apprehend harm from the disfranchisement of the negroes.

A Tribune special says an epidemic has broken out among the sheep of Vermont, and New Hampshire; a large number have died. Letters from Europe say that the emigration from Ireland, Germany and Norway will be larger than ever before.

Secretary Boutwell has issued new regulations for the Government Clerks of his Department. They mean work instead of loafing, and prohibit smoking and the use of intoxicating liquors during business hours.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco May 4.—The steamer Japan sailed for Yokohama and Hong Kong, at noon to-day.

New York Gold 136 1/2.
 Sailed to-day, brig Dexton, Reed, Port Ludlow.

PARIS FASHIONS FOR 1869.—These may now be seen in perfection at "London House," Government street, the last Express having brought one of the very choicest invoices of Drapery, Silk, Mersey and Fancy Dry Goods that has yet been opened in Victoria.

REDUCTION.—In future, T. N. Hibben & Co. will sell all English newspapers at 25 cents, instead of 37 1/2 cents, as heretofore. Also the four English Reviews, and Blackwood's Magazine, will be furnished to subscribers for $14 per annum.

SCOTCH HOUSE.—A McLean & Co. are just opening a fine assortment of Summer hats, and clothing received, by last express.

It is said that Mr. Beales, late president of the Reform League, will shortly receive a County Court Judgeship.

AUSTRALIA.

We have intelligence from Melbourne to the 2nd Mar. H. M. S. Galatea, with the Duke of Edinburgh on board, arrived there on the 22nd Feb. A previous despatch announced the Prince's arrival at Adelaide. His Royal Highness was to leave for Sydney on the 8th Mar.

Parliament is sitting, and the financial statement has been submitted to it. The finances are represented in a favourable light, and there is a small surplus. The payment of members of Parliament is proposed.

The drought has abated, and small-pox is subsiding.

A gold nugget has been found weighing 200lb.

Arrangements for intercolonial free trade are being organized.

We learn from Sydney that the Ministry is still in power, and that the Estimates have been passed by the Parliament. The Assembly has adopted a resolution declaring that evidence existed of there having been a Fenian conspiracy in the colony at the time of the attempted assassination of the Duke of Edinburgh.

The colonists express the greatest satisfaction at the appointment of Sir James Fergusson to the governorship of South Australia.

NEW ZEALAND.

New Zealand advices which are to hand justify the sanguine expectation that the war on the east coast is at an end. The main body of the Chatham Island fanatics, who committed the massacre at Poverty Bay, had been attacked by Colonel Whitmore, in Nagatapah, a strong fortification which they had erected. After a desperate conflict they were completely routed, 120 or 130 of them being killed and 80 taken prisoners. Our native allies are reported by the Colonel to have "behaved splendidly." Te Kooti, the leader of the band, made his escape by descending a lofty cliff. Many of the fugitives had been killed or captured.

THE HON. MR. GALT ON THE FENIAN CLAIMS.—The Tribune's Ottawa despatch says Mr. Galt made a long speech in the House of Commons, supporting his motion respecting the Fenian raids, and made additions to his previous motion, so as to include all the correspondence between Canada and the Home Government during the rebellion. He defended the policy of Canada at great length, and closed by saying this course it appeared was dictated by a desire to humiliate England through her Dependencies; he did not believe this plan would succeed. England would not, for a moment, give way, and the people of Canada would sustain her to a man.

Vice-Admirals the Hon. Joseph Denman and Charles Fredrick have been appointed to receive the Greenwich Hospital pensions placed at the disposal of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty by the deaths of Admiral of the Fleet Sir James Alexander Gordon, G. C. B., and Admiral Sir Peter Richards, K. C. B., and they have been placed on the retired list accordingly.

NEW ZEALAND.—A severe punishment has overtaken the natives who perpetrated the massacre at Poverty Bay. Their main stronghold, Napatapa, was captured by the colonial forces under Colonel Whitmore, on Jan. 3, and 200 of its defenders were killed, wounded, or taken prisoners. The total loss on our side did not exceed twenty-two.
